ENTRY: Please note that this event is held on the public highway and, whilst the aim is to use quiet roads, it is impossible to avoid A and B roads altogether. Routes may cover high and exposed ground and be a real test of stamina and cycle control. Entrants should be aware of the usual hazards such as junctions and other traffic and occasional hazards such as road works and poor road surfaces; Entrants must ride safely, according to the rules of the road and within their own capabilities, they must familiarise themselves with the route and ensure they are fit and competent to undertake this event. Entrants agree to abide fully with these rules and, in particular, responsibility for the roadworthiness of the machine is that of the entrant. You must consider yourself as being on a private excursion and rely on your own arrangements in the event of failure to complete the course. The entry fee is £5.00 per rider which must be paid in advance and will be donated to a charity chosen by Sylvia's husband. By signing below you are confirming that you have read, understand and accept all of the above points.

If you would like to receive route details via email please ensure you have provided an email address above and initial here: .....

If not please enclose a strong stamped self-addressed envelope (the size of A4 folded in half) for your route sheet and start information.
